

GEOGRAPHY (GEOG)

GEOG 102 WORLD GEOGRAPHY3 Credit Hours

Students will study the spatial relationship between geographic features such as climate, natural vegetation, topography, natural resources and physical landscapes, along with political, social, economic, globalization and cultural systems within world regions. (3 lecture)

GEOG 240 NORTH AMERICAN GEOGRAPHY3 Credit Hours

The spatial relationships between the geographic features such as climate, natural vegetation, topography, natural resources and physical landscape, also political, social, economic, and cultural systems in the United States and Canada. (3 lecture)

GEOG 297 SPECIAL TOPICS1-3 Credit Hours

(1-3 lecture)

GEOG 397 SPECIAL TOPICS IN GEOGRAPHY1-4 Credit Hours

(1-4 lecture)

GEOG 399 INDEPENDENT STUDY IN GEOGRAPHY1-6 Credit Hours